*“Trinity of blessed light,
O Unity of princely might,
The fiery sun now goes his way;
Shed thou within our hearts thy ray.*

*To thee our morning song of praise,
To thee our evening prayer we raise;
Thy glory suppliant we adore
For ever and for evermore.*

*All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to thee,
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete.”*

Dear Parishioner,

This prayer by our patron Saint Ambrose highlights the desire and need to praise our mighty God at all times. We enter into such praise as a community when we gather for our Eucharistic celebration each weekend and during the week at St. Ambrose or St. James daily mass. We enter into our communal praise of God to present ourselves with all of our worries, needs and concerns to the healing, calming and comforting presence of our loving Lord. This experience is also one in which we receive the silent and gentle support of the community and the tangible support, encouragement and nourishment of the Lord in word and sacrament. We carry out this praise of the Lord in our daily routine of devotional prayers, rosaries and the liturgy of the Hours and many other forms of prayerful praising of the Lord God. This is all to bring to fruition the words of Hildegard of Bingen of the 12th century:

“God created humankind, so that humankind might cultivate the earthly and thereby create the heavenly.”

Peace, Fr. Tom
